Bill & Lorraine Buehler Honored at Alumni House Christening Event

On June 19, Serenity Inns Board members, volunteers, graduates and donors gathered at Alumni House to honor Bill and Lorraine Buehler.

Alumni House was christened the "Buehler Alumni House" in recognition of the tremendous effort Bill and Lorraine made to transform the building housing the Serenity Inns graduates.

Purchased in 2016, the Buehler Alumni House provides safe, clean apartments for Serenity Inns graduates. The building has been extensively remodeled inside and out. Each unit's kitchen and bathroom has been redone; air conditioning installed; the back parking lot repaved; and so much more due to the thousands of volunteer hours spent on the interior and exterior. All of the work was overseen by Bill Buehler, who has been the Serenity Inns volunteer maintenance man for years. Lorraine Buehler is Secretary of the Serenity Inns Board of Directors and coordinates Fox Point Lutheran Church's three monthly Dinner Fellowship dates at the Inn.

In their brief acceptance speech, Bill and Lorraine noted there are individuals, churches and businesses (91 on the list) who played a role in making the Buehler Alumni House what it is today!

"We are truly blessed to have the dedication and commitment the Buehlers give to Serenity Inns. They give back wholeheartedly to inspire and instill hope in the men we serve," said Executive Director/CEO Kenneth Ginlack, Sr.

Dave Romoser, a longtime Serenity Inns volunteer and Board Ambassador, introduced Bill and Lorraine at the event. "Honoring Lorraine and Bill at the renaming of Alumni House event was very special. They live out their faith through their service and Serenity Inns has been blessed to be the recipient of their time, talents and financial support. It is so appropriate that we now call the graduates' home the Buehler Alumni House," Dave said.

Tanzania Drought Aid

The TOP (Tanzania Outreach Partnership) Committee met to address the concern regarding the 3-year drought in Tanzania. You may remember the lengthy, serious droughts the diocese suffered in 2011 and 2013 that destroyed crops and threatened our friends' survival. Your donations helped them survive that crisis. The immediate need is to send funding to the Meru Diocese through the Greater Milwaukee Synod.

It will be sent right after July 4, so time is short! Asante Sana (Thank you)

Hello!

"Now to him who is able to do far more abundantly than all we ask, according to the power at work within us, to him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus throughout all generations, forever and ever. Amen." – Ephesians 3:20-21

I heard the noise first...zzzzz...that early summer droning sound that alerts you to the UH-OH...there's a hornet in the house! He found the route in, now how do I get him out? Thank you to whomever invented the Swiffer...it's perfect for venomous insect eradication. One hornet climbing on the front window, one Swiffer ready for action and squish...done and done! An unpleasant insect who shouldn't have entered our domain in the first place is now securely in hornet heaven. We took care of this evil one quite easily. But how do we manage things when THE evil one vies for our attention? That saying that "the devil is in the details," can hold true for so many things!

"I will praise the Lord, who counsels me; even at night my heart instructs me. I keep my eyes always on the Lord. With him at my right hand, I will not be shaken." – Psalm 16:7-8

Our lives can go on so smoothly and beautifully with God at our side, our strength seemingly never ending. One day, though, we all hit that wall with a will greater than our own, so demanding, and merciless that it almost consumes us. Perhaps it's a frightening illness, a broken relationship, or a financial crisis. Our spiritual and physical muscles seem to turn to jelly. That... is the moment of true weakness when the devil, like that hornet, is emboldened and gains entrance. That...is exactly when we need to dress ourselves for the challenge.

"Finally, be strong in the Lord and in his mighty power. Put on the full armor of God, so that you can take your stand against the devil's schemes." – Ephesians 6: 10-11

Paul reminds and encourages us to prepare and steady ourselves and others by bowing our heads in prayer. The very act of folding our hands in prayer, with each finger supporting the other intertwined, overlapped and sturdy, we can draw strength from that posture alone as we let our words, our pleas, our praise, our despair, and our hopes pour out to our Father. His strength becomes our strength. The devil then has no place, no room, we permit him no space.

"For I am the Lord your God, who takes hold of your right hand and says to you, Do not fear; I will help you." – Isaiah 41:13

Our Father, protector, and joy, we turn to you this morning to praise your mighty deeds and give thanks for all the gifts that live in us and that we look upon each day. Help us to see with fresh eyes and love always, seeking courage for whatever we encounter, knowing we can look to you for strength in our weakest moments for you will be there, walking with us at every turn. Amen.

Let us give thanks! – Mary
